NEWS OF THE DAY.

THIS WAR.

—We have Southern reports to date. They seem to be very much confused about the contest between Jackson and Banks. They say that on Saturday afternoon an attack was made upon the enemy by a portion of the division of Gen. Ewell, and a brigade under Gen. C. S. Winder. Over 300 prisoners were captured in this engagement, including 30 commissioned officers. They further say that the general belief is that the Union loss is four times that of the Confederates. As Fairbank remarked, "Lord, how this war is given to lying." They record the killing of Gen. Winder, nephew of the jailer-in-chief and former general of Union prisoners at Richmond. The vilest complaint of an accident to the telegraph wires and railroads; that may be charged to some of Burnside's army. The Richmond papers give a list of 23 Union officers captured, and are clamorous for their murder, in case Pope executes any such executioner who shoots at him from behind a tombstone. Well, when Davis actually carries out these cowardly threats, it will be soon enough to write the doom of the devil who dare the vengeance of the long-suffering, much-forgiving millions of the North. Let but a hair of the head of Gen. Prince, Col. Corcoran, or other Union prisoners be touched in a spirit of retaliation, and——Our latest dispatches from Gen. Pope's headquarters put quite a Jackson on the ground. He is on the high mountains, southwest of Gordonsville. Our troops are steadily pushing forward, somewhat retarded by high water in the Rapidan. Gen. Banks has nearly recovered, and will soon be in the saddle. Gen. Pope has issued an order, telling his troops that subsisting on the surrounding country does not mean private pilferage, and all soldiers and officers are forbidden to molest or despoil the citizens. Jackson, it is said, is striving before him all the slaves, threatening to shoot any who attempt to escape to the Union lines. The country has been impoverished by Jackson, and the inhabitants fear starvation. As our right wing advances they find wounded Rebels in almost every house. A great many white Rebels seize the first chance to desert, and the woods are filled with them. Col. Donnelly, who was wounded while leading his regiment into action, died yesterday at Culpepper. It is said that Jackson's forces occupy the Central Railroad from Louisa to Charlottesville. Col. Buford, who commands our pursuing force, has taken a considerable number of Rebels prisoners.

—An immense war meeting was held in Brooklyn last evening, for the purpose of taking measures to aid in filling up the quota required from that city under the late call for volunteers. Meetings were held inside and outside of the City Hall, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Resolutions were adopted recommending the Board of Supervisors to appropriate $500,000, with the view of paying a bounty to each recruit of $40, in addition to State and United States bounties. Gen. Sickles made a stirring speech, and Mr. F. O. Edick.

—Some cowardly scoundrel who writes for the Richmond Dispatch is so urgent for the capture of "the arch fiend and savage" Pope himself. If he were not so fleet on foot as a black bear, we might anticipate a luxury compared with which the capture of a thousand other Yankee Generals would be dull and trivial. Pope, say Bull! If those two precious miscreants could only fall into Southern hands! The Journal Dispatch is doubtless anxious to read Pope alive, as his brethren have often done their slaves. What a lovely set of Christians!

—The Chicago Times (very doubtful authority) has news of the capture of the Union forces near Cumberland Gap, the reconquest of East Tennessee by the Rebels, their late prospect of chasing up Bull, &c. It further reports that Beauregard is at Chattanooga with 70,000 men, and that Vicksburg is all serene—trade reviving, and the bombardment damage so slight as to be repaired in a month. This Chicago Times (really Secessionist) is the paper that started the story of the ten Rebel iron-clads.

—The Police Commissioners are wide awake in the business of raising regiments. From their success in filling up the two regiments now under their auspices, they are not to believe they could raise a brigade, could recruit to satisfaction beyond peradventure that their families would be provided for. The plan by which this is to be effected is detailed in a circular from the Commissioners in another column, to which we call attention. Subscriptions for the object will be duly acknowledged.

—We have two days' water dates from New-Orleans, but no important news. Gen. Butler has got hold of the subscription list in which the wealthy men of the city put down heavy sums to aid the rebellion, and has assessed upon each of them about one-quarter as much for the aid of the suffering poor. Of course this will be set down by the traitors as another outrage by the Massachusetts monster.

—Messrs. Estlin, Livingston & Co. of this city have inaugurated a movement among our wholesale dry-goods merchants. Recently they gave $500 to promote enlistments in Putnam County, and now offer $10 each to 100 all-male men who will enlist in the 51st, 38th, 102nd, or 65th Regiment, now at the east of war.

—Gen. Prince and the other Union officers captured on Saturday last, are in close confinement at Richmond, and will be treated with the utmost severity. They are held as hostages for prospective prisoners in our hands, and will doubtless be murdered if the traitors can find any tolerable excuse for doing so.

—Gen. Burnside has arrested Mayor Slaughter and fourteen other prominent citizens from Frederickburg, who are charged with secretly aiding and abetting the enemy, and giving them information of the movements of the Union army. They are now in the Old Capitol Prison.

—Judge John W. Brown of Newburgh addressed a large war meeting in Middletown, Orange County, on Thursday evening. Judge Brown is a life-long Democrat, but he believes in striking at the power of the enemy—Slavery, strike that. A report will be found elsewhere.

—On the second page of this morning's edition we give a letter from Virginia, a manly letter of Daniel S. Dickinson on the war, further names of sick and wounded soldiers and interesting religious and personal items.

—See third page of this morning's issue for extracts from late Rebel papers, a letter from Florida, and various war items.

—See McColl, who has just arrived in Washing-ington from a Richmond prison, talks bitterly of the Rebels, and says the "bogus" Confederacy must be crushed even if the extermination of its upholders should be necessary.

—The Vanderbilt arrived last evening with 500 sick and wounded soldiers from Harrison's Landing. The boat was detained two days at Fort Monroe by rough weather.

—The 33d Regiment, from Boston, Mass., under command of Col. Maggi, passed through this city yesterday morning, en route for the seat of war. The regiment numbers 1,220 picked men.

GENERAL NEWS.

—By the arrival of the steamship Glasgow, off Cape Race, we have four days' later news from Europe. The report that the new Rebel steamer had put into Holyhead proved to be unfounded. The Tuscarora, which had returned from an unsuccessful search for the Rebel steamer to Queenstown, left that port again on the 7th inst., her destination being unknown. The Times has all at once become a strong opponent of intervention, and is still of opinion that if the Americans are only let alone Lincoln cannot possibly get his three hundred thousand men, and will soon be compelled to make peace. In another article it holds out this letter of Russell on the Federal crimes as a proof of English forbearance. The Daily News has gloomy anticipations about the impending cotton famine. In the House of Lords, Earl Russell declared it inexpedient to produce the correspondence relative to the acknowledgment of the Confederate States, but stated that the agent of the Confederate States was not recognized. He also declared it desirable, if mediation is to be offered, that all Powers should join in it. Parliament was prorogued on the 8th inst.; the passage of the Queen's speech relative to the American war was entirely non-committal. Affairs in Italy became more and more complicated. Garibaldi has again called the young men to arms, and Victor Emmanuel has issued a counter proclamation, denouncing the revolutionary schemes. The Russian Government denies the report of Russia having agreed with France upon a scheme of intervention.

STATE OF THE MARKETS.

The Stock market is much more quiet, except in Government securities, which were much better, with considerable advance.
